

The Secrets of Success: CRO views of successful outsourcing

Tuesday 30 September 2014
SCI, London, UK

Organised by SCI's Fine Chemicals Group and RSC's Biological & Medicinal Chemistry Sector and supported by SCI's Science and Enterprise Group

Synopsis

The outsourcing sector supports the pharmaceutical industry and the relationship between the two has developed enormously over the last 20 years. This meeting seeks to illustrate these developments along with current challenges and best practice as seen from the suppliers view point. The meeting will include speakers working in CROs from drug discovery through to development and will highlight what makes a successful collaboration, together with some potential pitfalls.
